

BOOK KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER – HOLES BY LOUIS SACHAR

Important Information

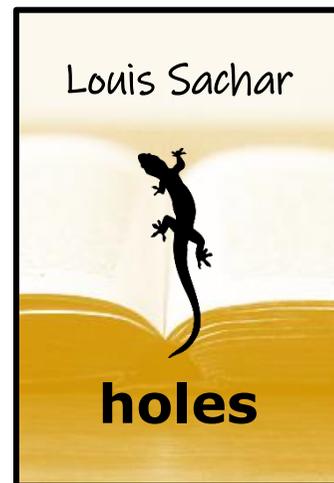

Plot
A boy is wrongfully convicted of stealing an orphanage donation and must choose between going to jail or Camp Green Lake. He decides to go the camp, which turns out to be a brutal place where he is forced to dig holes in the desert all day on the orders of the mysterious warden, who is actually using the prisoners' hard labour to look for buried treasure.

Themes
Fate and Destiny, Friendship, Cruelty, Resilience, Stress and Problem Solving.

Setting
The book is set in the detention centre for young boys called Camp Green Lake, in a dried-up lake in Calhoun County, Texas. Desert-like heat make conditions harsh. There are also brief flashbacks to scenes in Latvia (Europe) and Texas in the mid to late 19th century.

Quotes

"A lot of people don't believe in curses. A lot of people don't believe in yellow-spotted lizards either, but if one bites you, it doesn't make a difference whether you believe in it or not." His muscles and hands weren't the only parts of his body that had toughened over the past several weeks. His heart had hardened as well.

Context - The narrator of Holes seems reliable but often interjects dark humour or irony into the narration. Many statements are made which require the reader to make his or her own inferences about the subject matter. At times, the narrator breaks with the omniscient narration to address the reader directly and pose questions about the events in the book.
